DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. With respect to claim 8, "said roller" lacks antecedent basis. It is believed that claim 8 was intended to depend from claim 7. The examiner will consider claim 8 as depending from claim 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 9, 12 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by European patent to Scharff (EP 1,164,074- cited in IDS).
6. The patent to Scharff discloses a sweeper body including a frame 5, a pair of front wheels 3,4 supported by an axle apparatus 25,26 at a forward end of said sweeper body, the axle apparatus being constructed to provide a space between the front wheels (see figure 4), a pair of rear wheels 23,24 supported at a rearward end of the sweeper body, a container (above rear wheels) coupled to the sweeper for receiving debris, a suction hose 16 extending between the container and a vacuum nozzle 15 proximal a forward end of said sweeper body, said suction hose extending through said space between said front wheels and is considered to intersect a longitudinal axis of said axle apparatus that extends between the front wheels. Scharff is also considered to disclose a suction device (above rear wheels) for drawing debris from the nozzle and at least one brush 17 coupled to a forward end of the sweeper body for sweeping debris from a ground surface. In addition, Scharff also discloses an operator's cab (see figure 1) at said forward end of the sweeper body.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

9. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

10. Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over European patent to Scharff (EP 1,164,074- cited in IDS) in view of German patent to Iseki (DE 296 13 858).

11. The patent to Scharff does not disclose the nozzle is supported on a roller apparatus for rolling the nozzle proximal to a ground surface. The German patent to Iseki discloses a sweeper apparatus that has a nozzle 12 and a roller apparatus 10 that extends forward of the sweeper body on which the nozzle is supported. It would have been obvious to a person skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a roller apparatus to the nozzle of Scharff in view of the teaching of Iseki in order to support the nozzle as it travels over undulating road surfaces.

Allowable Subject Matter

12. Claims 2-6, 10, 11 and 13-17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

13. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Duncan Hamilton and Ringer show street sweepers having one or more features of the claimed invention.
